President Signs Bill Admitting Canadian Nisei Woman Who Married G. I. Into U. S.

WASHINGTON, D. C. — President Truman signed a private bill on Oct. 19 admitting to permanent residence Mrs. Tohiko Keyser, a Canadian Japanese married to an American veteran of World War II, according to the JACL Anti Discrimination Committee.

Mrs. Keyser met her husband in Japan where she was employed by the Military Government team at Osaka from Nov. 1946 to April 1949, and he was serving with the American army of occupation.

She returned to Canada this past summer and applied for entrance to the U. S. from there.

The private bill in her behalf was introduced by Rep. Francis E. Walter, Democrat, Pennsylvania who is also the author of the Walter Resolution which would grant citizenship to alien residents of the U. S. of oriental extraction.

* * *

According to Mike Masaoka, Legislative Director of the JACL-ADC, who was in Toronto over the past weekend, eight Canadian Nisei girls married to American soldiers were admitted into the U. S. this year. He said that 36 Japanese Canadians have now entered the U. S. since the war as the result of their marriage to American military personnel.

It is known that there are several Canadian Nisei still in Japan who are engaged or married to American soldiers and who are seeking admittance into the U. S.

Just Passing Through

By KEN ADACHI

Appetite. . .

From the paddy fields of ye olde Japan (?) comes this product to enrich the culinary delights of Joe Nisei.

Rinse carefully several times with cold water, making sure that all foreign matter such as barley grains are extracted. Now that it is a sodden mass in the bottom of the pot, pour water to the required level. This "required level" may be reached in devious manner, the best and tried-by-time method by measure of the hand, palm downward. Add pinch of salt, dash of pepper. No! What am I saying? Place pot on stove, heat to boil. And then comes the result—one pot of steaming, succulent RICE, a king's ransom to boot.

Our trusty office Webster defines rice as "an annual cereal grass widely cultivated in warm climates for its seed, used for human food". Gastronomically speaking, it is more than a delight to Joe Nisei, it is a necessity of life. What's associated closely with the Japanese? The answer must be inevitably and naturally—rice.

Huh? What brought up this discussion of the "annual cereal grass widely. . ."? Well, for one thing a crony of mine once musingly said, "What would happen if the world was suddenly unable to produce enough rice to supply these hungry rice-eaters? A catastrophe of major proportions, no less."

For most Niseis, the "annual cereal grass widely. . ." is an inherent and long-associated part of their lives. Ever since they can remember, they have sat at a table partaking of the disgusting stuff. In this land of the wide, flowing fields where the staff of bread is the glowing symbol of Canadian food, Joe Nisei would rather exercise his appetite on the white pellets of rice together with its associates [illegible], takuwan, and what have you.

[illegible] I remember most [illegible] during the coast days [illegible] the epithets that [illegible] against some of [illegible] with the other [illegible] was the crowning [illegible]

[illegible] divide the ranks [illegible] three groups. [illegible] incorrigible rice-eater. [illegible] indifferent type [illegible] there are those who [illegible] the stuff.

[illegible] type is the one [illegible] every day without [illegible] friends falls into [illegible] category—he just [illegible] the stuff, he [illegible] breathlessly.

[illegible] a large number of the Nisei are of the indifferent variety. They can take it or leave it. And then there are those who are fiercely opposed to rice in any shape or form, be it steamed, fried or boiled. At a dinner table was heard a violent denunciation of rice and its attendant evils recently. Perhaps he has a phobia against rice. Perhaps he choked on the stuff in his early childhood and has harboured a deadly resentment against it throughout his life. That's one for the psychologists.

Masaoka Said:

JCCA Necessary to Safeguard Japanese Canadian Interests

By Staff Writer

There is a need for a minority group to have a responsible body that will constantly work in behalf of those whom it represents. That was the crux of the speeches given by Mike Masaoka, outstanding Japanese American leader and lobbyist in Washington who has needled Congress into passage of legislation benefiting those of Japanese ancestry in the United States, and Edward J. Ennis, legal counsel for Japanese American evacuation claimants.

"The lesson that we learn from the evacuation and what we have accomplished in Washington is that we must be organized," said Masaoka before a Toronto JCCA-sponsored gathering of more than 400 at the Canadian Legion Hall on Oct. 23. He pointed out that without the JACL, the Japanese Americans could never achieve what it already had been able to do.

"Group action is more effective than individual effort," he said.

Turning to the Japanese Canadian situation, Mr. Masaoka noted that it was two years ago that he was privileged to attend a gathering in Toronto when the JCCA was being organized and to play a part in its formation. He complimented the JCCA on its two years' accomplishments.

He said that the JCCA must be maintained in order to continue its work for the Japanese Canadians just as the JACL in the United States is doing for the Japanese Americans in order to correct injustices, to act as a bulwark against possible future injustices and intolerances, and in general to work for the welfare of persons of Japanese origin residing in Canada.

Mr. Masaoka urged everyone to support the JCCA to their utmost for it is "the only organization which can do so much for the Japanese Canadians."

Reviewing the resettlement and re-establishment of the 110,000 evacuees in the United States, Mr. Masaoka said that 70,000 or 65 per cent have now returned to the West Coast where they have found that conditions were much better than it had been before Pearl Harbor. He said that the improvement can be attributed to the demonstration of Japanese American loyalty by Niseis who volunteered for service from behind the barbed wire fences of relocation camps and the sincere desire on the part of the American people to correct the injustices inflicted upon the Japanese Americans.

Mr. Ennis, in his talk said that the American people and the government now fully realize the grave mistake of the evacuation and that they were endeavouring to remedy at least what they could of the wrong. He termed the evacuation as a failure of democracy as political pressure from certain west coast interests under the guise of patriotism and national security resulted in the uprooting of the Japanese Americans.

But, he pointed out, that it was democracy that was attempting to rectify the wrong that they had suffered.

In addition to the two American speakers, George Tanaka, executive secretary of the National JCCA, and Tom Shoyama, National President, spoke briefly. The meeting was chaired by the President of the Toronto JCCA, Kinzie Tanaka.

May Not File Claims Against Japanese Banks

Office of Alien Property, Department of Justice in Washington, this week notified that resident Canadian creditors cannot file claims against the proceeds of the vested property of the Mitsui Bank, the Sumitomo Bank or the Yokohama Specie Bank which had branches located in the United States.

Only those citizens of the United States or the Philippine Islands or persons who are or have been residents of the U. S. since the beginning of the war may make claims.

A few Japanese residents in Canada had deposits in the U. S. branches of these banks.

Japanese Reported Working On Atom

TOKYO. — Four Japanese physicists are working on atomic research for the Chinese Communists according to the Tokyo Mainichi newspaper.

A scientist named Masaaki Suzuki who was recently repatriated from Darien in Manchuria gave the information to the Mainichi. The head of the researchers was identified as Chinisa Ishii who was said to have studied nuclear physics for ten years under Dr. K. Nishina who is now in London.

Chief Abbot Thanks Canadians For Aid

A change in the arrival time of Chief Abbot Kocho Otani and his party of Buddhist dignitaries from Friday night (Oct. 21) by train to Saturday afternoon by plane caused a series of hitches in the program of activities planned during their brief visit to Toronto. Much of the schedule was curtailed, shifted, delayed or even eliminated.

At the public lecture held at the Museum Theatre on Oct. 22, Chief Abbot Otani expressed gratitude in behalf of the Buddhists of Japan to the people in Canada for providing aid and comfort to the people of Japan.

He was accompanied here by his wife, Lady Satoko, who is the younger sister of the Empress of Japan, three other Buddhist officials, and Rev. Kubose of Chicago who is acting as interpreter and guide.

The party left for New York on Sunday, Oct. 23, via Niagara Falls.

Anti-Japanese References Deleted From Movie Version Of Peter B. Kyne's Racist Novel

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah. — Prompt action by the JACL in altering a Hollywood film studio regarding possible racist inferences in a forthcoming production, based on Peter B. Kyne's anti-Japanese novel of California, "Pride of Palomar" last week resulted in assurances from the producers that "we have eliminated even a mention of the Japanese".

Harry Sherman, president of California Studios and producer of the picture said that the studio has no intention of causing any ill-sentiment against persons of Japanese ancestry.

The Kyne novel was one of two books utilized to build up the "yellow peril" campaign through the nation and to help build up public sentiment towards passage of anti-Japanese legislation.

Forbidden To Enter "Unhealthy Centers"

TOKYO, Japan. — Starting this week, Japanese boys and girls were forbidden by law to enter cabarets, dance halls and "other unhealthy amusement centers."

National police headquarters said the step had been taken to combat juvenile delinquency.

To Observe Oct. 30 As Nisei Memorial Day

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Interdenominational services will mark the first national Nisei Soldier Memorial day Oct. 30. Commemorative services are planned for Italy and France by Nisei communities throughout the United States and in Hawaii and by Nisei veterans in Japan.

The occasion for the observance is the fifth anniversary of the rescue of the Lost Texas battalion in the Vosges mountains of France by the famed all-Nisei 442nd Regimental Combat team, a fierce battle in which the 442nd suffered almost [illegible] casualties in rescuing fewer than [illegible] men from a German trap.

HELP THE HAND THAT HELPS YOU

The JCCA, this month, has launched its annual drive for funds in order to carry on with its work for another year. Like any other organization, it cannot function without financial support. It must have our help and that help is needed badly.

In recent weeks, this newspaper has published several articles pertaining to the work of the JCCA, what it has done, what it is doing, and perhaps most important of all, what it plans to do. Included in its intended program of action are the removal of remaining racial restrictions, assisting the return of excluded strandees and continuing its work on evacuation claims. This is merely some of the work that has to be carried out by the JCCA.

However, without the necessary funds to carry out this program, the JCCA will come to a standstill. It cannot carry on without help. Or if its financial drive falls short of its goal, it means the curtailment or some elimination of its intended projects, each a vital one in the welfare of Japanese Canadians.

Perhaps there is a good cross section of us who feel that there is no longer a need for the JCCA or that even without an active representative organization like the JCCA that things are turning for the better. It is unfortunate that we couldn't all hear Mike Masaoka who spoke in Toronto last Sunday. He told the meeting in no uncertain terms what the JACL meant to Japanese Americans.

He said that group action through a representative organization achieves better results than individual effort. He is the most important cog in the JACL machinery who is well familiar with the workings and the foibles of the American legislative bodies, and he should know.

He pointed out that while worthy charitable and welfare agencies warranted our support, no other organization can do as much for the Japanese Canadians as its representative organization, the JCCA. Nothing is more close to the truth than that. The Red Feather, the Red Cross, the Santa Claus Fund, sure, we should give to them, but they won't work towards removing racial restrictions or bringing our stranded Niseis in Japan back to Canada.

Your Legal Problems

Questions About Property

Question: I am buying a house, and the agent asks me to sign the offer to purchase. What is the "offer to purchase"?

Answer: The "offer to purchase" is the real agreement between the vendor and yourself, and it is for this reason that you must be certain that it includes everything that you are to receive (such as furniture, heaters, etc.) If the sale is conditional upon the vendor doing something this must be written in also. In other words, the offer should contain the entire agreement between yourself and the vendor. The law is that what is written in the offer is the final agreement and nothing verbal can be enforced, or sued upon. Therefore always have everything in the offer and sign it before you give the deposit. The safest plan is to have your lawyer check the offer to purchase before you sign it.

Nisei Choir

The weekly practice of the Toronto Nisei choir has been changed from Thursday to Monday evenings. The time and place remains unchanged, 8 p.m. and Church of All Nations.

The choir is soon to begin on selections from Gilbert and Sullivan operettas though the selections have yet to be chosen.

They are also working on songs of the popular type. At the present the choir under the direction of Tats Sanmiya is practicing "Begin The Beguine", and are also preparing for the coming Christmas season.

The choir invites those Niseis who have thought about joining but who have not as yet done so to drop in on Monday evenings at the Church of All Nations. Anyone can join.

They were Altencia Nakagawa, 22, a student of the University of Mexico and daughter of a Japanese druggist in Ixtepec, Oaxaca and Mrs. Seria Lopez, 25, daughter of Chuji Watanabe, a druggist in Matias Oaxaca and the bride of a major in the Mexican Army's medical corps.

THE WEEKLY HABIT

By TOYO TAKATA

Even the most reliable of news agencies makes a blunder. The International News Service in Washington inadvertently released a premature dispatch last week that the Walter Resolution passed the Senate and thereby had become law. This law would have given the U. S. opportunity to apply for American citizenship.

This dispatch was grabbed up by several American west coast newspapers including some Japanese publications. It also got us slightly crossed up and we wondered what was up but somehow our newspaper sense told us that there was a mistake somewhere and we stuck to the story that the Resolution had been blocked.

We saw it in one of the Japanese newspapers published in Denver, displayed of course, prominently in both the Japanese and English sections. The next day, they placed a note of apology.

But they weren't the only ones with red faces. Li'l Tokyo, the Japanese community in Los Angeles, announced that it was going to stage a celebration parade. Congratulatory telegrams began to arrive at the Washington JACL office. A lot of neighborhood celebrations were said to have started, and a lot of Isseis started to inquire about how to apply for citizenship.

We asked Mike Masaoka about this when he was in Toronto over the weekend. At that we were still in the dim half-light about what was the truth and he relieved us when he said that the International News dispatch was a slip.

So, should we slip up once in a while, we hope our readers will forgive us. Errors often occur in our reports, sometimes we get erroneous reports even from reliable sources. If these errors are detected in time, then fine, but this is not always the case.

Most of our errors occur in translation. This is especially true in names. We get the English names written in kana, and kana never tells the proper spelling.

Hamilton JCCA Concert

HAMILTON. — The Hamilton J.C.C.A. with the cooperation of local clubs and individuals is presenting a well-planned and entertaining display of well-known and hitherto hidden talents on Sat., Nov. 19.

More than an hour of the best talents available will be presented by Toronto performers. The concert with the combined talents of Hamilton and Toronto Nisei should therefore be a spectacular and elaborate one. The elder Issei and the parents especially should be entertained.

Arizona Paper Salutes Nisei In Editorial

PHOENIX, Arizona. — Phoenix which is a Jim Crow town and the least cordial spot to the Nisei in the state of Arizona paid a salute, editorially, to the Japanese Americans in the Salt River Valley.

The Arizona Times gave tribute to the Arizona chapter of the JACL and its 90 members recently. It cited the fact that among other things, the Nisei have won their way back to self citizenship in the Valley of the Sun even after that they were moved to relocation camps during wartime hysteria.

RAMBLING TO CAPITOL HILL

Capitol Hill is not far away,
'Tis only a mile from town they say.
Behold a white house way down yonder,
We hope to get there but how we wonder.

We wearily plodded through muck and mud.
Which caught poor Joyce with splash and thud.
What fools we mortals were to venture a thought
When the temperature registered 'not very hot'
Of knapsacking weiners and buns to points west.
Judy will say it was fun nevertheless.

The camp fire roared as Henry S. chopped,
While genius Hen-chan scuttled and stopped
For one sturdy pole from whence to hang the pot
Of the long awaited shot of java we brought.

But hark! what rattles in distant hill?
That's Tomi and Roy, our 'Jack and Jill'.
"Why so late you two in the car,
Have you been pubbing all day at the bar?"

Inseparable Henry, Don, Keiya and Ben,
Our four star attraction was in action again
Robbed little Eva's lipstick "Fantastic."
Donald fell victim to you know what an

And so went the story of our tiresome hike
The one E.N.C.F.ers all did like.
As we watched the dying embers sputter to rest
The last of our outings, the season's best!

兄の廊下のつゞくりをしてゐた佳代は、八十二が、案内も乞はずに、のそりとはいつて來るのを見ると、

「あら。」

ちよつとびつくりした。彼が、いつになく、不機嫌なむづかしい顔をしてゐるのを發見したからだ。裏の小學校のチームが今日の試合に勝つたことはもう佳代の耳にもはいつてゐた。

――駒木さん、どんなに喜んでいらつしやることだらう

母は近所の心易い奥さんのところへ話しに行く、兄は今夜もまだ歸らぬ、彼女は、ひとりで留守をしながら、實はさつきからそんな風に八十二のことを考へてゐたところだつたのだ。

「いらつしやい。」

彼女の頰にはひとりでに優しい微笑が浮んだ。もしかしたら、もう彼が今日の試合の報告に來さうなものだと、彼女は心待ちにしてゐたかも知れないのだ。

八十二は、むつとした顔のまま、部屋のなかへはいつて來た。

「おめでたう。」

と佳代は言つた。

「勝つたんですつてね？」

「ああ。」

八十二のほゝのあたりにはかすかに微笑らしいものが浮んだやうでもあつた。

が、相變らずむづかしい表情は去らず、そのまゝ默つてゐる。

――をかしいわ……と佳代は思つた。

「變ね。」

思ひ切つて、彼女は言つた

「どうなすつたの？　駒木さん、今夜に限つて、默つていらつしやるの？」

「……」

「どうしてそんなこはい顔していらつしやるの？」

「おれ、そんなこはい顔してるかね？」

はじめて、八十二が口を開いた。

「ええ、してるわ。とても憂鬱さう。」

「憂鬱なんだよ。」

と、八十二は太い眉をひそめた。

「あら？　どうして？」

佳代は氣になつて來た。

「をかしいぢやないの？　今日は駒木さんのあんなに可愛がつていらつしやるチームが勝つたと言ふのに。」

「……」

「何か他に憂鬱なことでもあつたの？」

「……」

八十二は答へない。默つてにがさうに煙草をくはへてゐる。

彼のその沈默が佳代を不安にした。

そして、佳代は、なぜだか彼のその沈默が、昨夜彼の部屋で見たあの美しい訪問客――杉野先生の娘の啓子と何か關係があるのではないかしらと感じた。

故郷、南海の寶島へ

歸還促進運動する小笠原の元住民

【浦和發】終戰以來四年あまり南海の寶島へ歸る日を待ち續けてきた小笠原諸島の住民約六千人が歸島促進運動を起そうとしている。――一九四四年六月、强制疎開命令で住みなれた故郷の島から着のみ着のまゝで内地に移住してから父島母島など大小十余の島島は無人島同樣、わずかに父島に少數の日系米人がいるだけとなった

この島々は殺虫剤デリス根、南のマヒ藥コカインの世界的産地で、これだけでも時價年産十億圓、沿海はサンゴ、ベッコウの寶庫をもち鯨の漁場をひかえて戰前は水産で年に當時の金額で六十萬圓、野菜類は冬季中京濱地帯をうるおした

島民たちは終戰後まもなく「小笠原諸島歸還促進運動」をつくつて各方面に呼びかけてきたが、最近内地から父島に歸る第五工作隊勤務日系米人ウイリー・セボレー氏の世話で同連盟代表の歸島請願書をマリアナの米軍司令官に提出することになった、同連盟代表は連合軍總司令部にも請願書を出しているが、以下は小笠原歸島促進連盟委員大宮市宮町淺沼啓三郎氏(五七)が語る父島の近況

◇二年前島に歸つた日系米人は一日も早く私たちが島に歸つてくれることを願つているそうで現在のまゝでは、これらの日系米人百三十余名は親族結婚以外に道がないので優生學上からも重大な事態に追いこまれる、島民が歸らなければ寶の島もどうすることも出來ない、木材、食糧は幾らでもあるからノコギリ一丁ノミ一丁の裸で歸つても其日から何不自由ない生活が出來る

◇疎開のときに、そのまゝにした山林、耕地は米軍の命令でいまも元の所有權のまゝになつており、それらの土地には農作物、果實などが繁殖しているという、また父島の地下タンクには戰時中軍で保管していた重油二万トンが殘つており今後十年間は油に不自由しないという

ハシカ流行

ニューデンバーで

◇ニューデンバーの日本人間に目下ハシカが流行していてオーチャード内の日本人で子供のある家族は軒並にハシカに罹り次から次へと寢込んでいるが、惡性の患者はない樣である

◇日本人側有志主催の下に十月廿一日日本人ホールに於て日白合同の野球團慰勞大會を催す事に決定、餘興には演藝もあるそうで目下その準備が進んでいる

◇ニューデンバーの今頃は毎年寄るとさわると松茸の話で持ち切り、話に花を咲かせるものだが今年はさっぱり出ていないとの悲觀的話ばかりである

五ケ月間に講演二百回

日本全國傳道旅行了えて沖繩へ

日本全國傳道旅行が、[illegible]事に[illegible]

九月十五日頃京都から通信を發していち私は奈良、八木、和歌山縣、橋本、大阪市内の十幾つの教會、芦屋、尼ケ崎西宮、富田林、堺等の各教會や桃山學園、プール女學院、東光學園、博愛社、桃山神學校、教區教役教會、更に大阪教區聯合大會で說教し、ミスコックスの記念會でも說教、最後は三重縣の津で二回の御用に當つた。

顧みれば四月二十五日に日本に着いてから五ケ月以上、殆ど一日の休養もなく二百十回の講演をなし、會衆は七万を越えるほどの盛況とは、全く私にとつては思いもしないことであつた。多分日本聖公會で私ほど全國に傳道した人もなければ歡迎された人もないだろうとは傳道部長會での報告である。何たる感謝であろうか。最後の大阪での御奉仕の中に、カナダで馴染みの小穴牧師の天下茶屋聖公會で集會したのは樂しい思い出の一つである。小穴牧師夫妻も大部年をとられたが大變元氣で居られる

京都に傳道中のことであつた。京都が今回の戰災からまぬがれたのは米國の首腦者の理解は勿論であるが神の御加護によるものと、大きな驛前の廣場に其の感謝記念塔を千五百萬圓で建てることになつて、神道、佛教、キリスト教で地鎭祭をする事になり、私もそれに加わつた。何でも京都は廣島、長崎と共に原子爆彈をおとされる六大都市の一つであつた由だが、日本について理解のあるワーナー博士の進言によつて爆撃をまぬがれた由である。

こゝで私はバーンス京都司令官はじめ府知事、市長、商工會議所會頭その他にお目にかゝつた。われらキリスト教牧師は少數であつたが聲高らかに讚美歌を歌つたので、物静かな神道や佛教の人は驚いたらしく、後で一人の佛教の名僧は『どうもキリスト教の方が時代に適應している。誰でも改宗したいような氣になるのも無理がない』などと言つて居られた。

奈良に於ては縣廳につとめている信者の紹介で知事不在のため副知事に面會、知事の自動車を出して頂き名所たる奈良公園、春日神社、大佛殿等などを撮影したがフイルムがあれば奈良縣のために滞山撮影をたのまれたが、それが出來なかつたのは殘念であつた

八木に於では神武天皇の橿原神宮にも參つて來た。盛んなりし往時は、かすかに美しい自然と神殿に面影を殘して人足は今はまばらである。御洗水もかれて居るなどで參道の燈籠もガラスがこわれて其のまゝになつて居るのがある位だ。時代の變遷のはげしさが思われる。

大阪では聖バルナバ病院でララ配給の粉ミルクの分配の實際を見る事が出來、博愛社や東光學園の戰災孤兒四百五十名を慰めはげまして來た。理想的工場なる大和川染工場の六百名の人々にも語つた。

私は明朝一時沖繩へ向け飛行機で出發する豫定である。

團体行動の必要性

市協の意義を正岡、エニス兩氏强調

十月二十三日夜トロント市協主催の會合で四百名以上の會衆を前にして演說した全米市協反差委員會の主事正岡マイク氏と米國側の賠償問題顧問辯護士エニス氏は

少數者群としては彼等を代表して其の利益擁護のために常に働き得る代表機關が絕對に必要である

と强調し、カナダに於ては全加日系市協が如何に大きな働きをなしつゝあるかを指摘して『諸君は將來の保險のために市協を財政的にも援助し其の活動を可能ならしめるべく努めなければならない』と訴えた。正岡氏は「總移動の教訓と吾々がワシントンで成しとげた成果とは、吾々が組織されなければならぬことを强く教えるものである。集團的行動は個々人の努力よりも遙に有効であり、全米市協がなかつたならば日系米人は今日の成果は得られなかつたであろう。過去四ヶ年間に吾々が成しとげて來たことは日本政府が過去四十年間にやつて來た事よりも遙かに大きいのである」とて、色々の例を擧げて說明し、カナダ側に就ては二ヶ年前市協が組織されて以來の働きを稱揚して次の如く主張した

米國側で全米市協が日系米人のために不正義を是正させる仕事を續けているように全加市協は將來起り得る不正義に對するトリデともなつて日系カナダ人の福祉のために働き續けなければならないのであり、全加市協こそは日系人のために活動し得る唯一の團体である

過ちを是正させる團体の力

エニス辯護士は『米國民と政府は今や總移動の過ちを全的に認識し之を悪かつた所を是正しようと努めているが、これも團体行動の力によつて理解が增してきたからである」とて、總移動發令當時の事情を說明し「若し當時ワシントンに現在の全米市協の如き團体があつたら總移動は阻止できたであろう」と言い、米國側の賠償問題の大要を述べたが或る部分ではカナダの方が遙かに進捗して居り、米國側では賠償申請期限が來年一月までで、まだ組織されて居らず賠償支拂までにはまだ〳〵五年十年とかゝる事になるかも知れぬという。會合はトロント市協の田中會長が司會し全國委員長の生山トム、書記長の田中ジョージ兩氏も挨拶した

Japan Police Lack Proper Equipment

TOKYO. — Critics of the Allied-imposed police system in Japan point out that besides being inefficient, it lacks sufficient equipment to ensure strict law enforcement.

They maintain that there are only 25,000 pistols for use by the 125,000 cops and that the 20 to 30 types of pistols create a problem in supplying adequate ammunition.

H. S. Eaton, chief police administrator however, points out that the Japanese police facilities equipment; transportation and communications are constantly being improved. Emphasis is given to police training: 32,000 recruits were given a minimum of four months' training, 4,000 more were trained to replace others, and 93,000 old-time policemen had to be given training in the democratic way of the new police.

Woman Doctor Studies Skin Diseases In U. S.

BIRMINGHAM, Alabama. — Dr. Chiyeko Okawa, a young Christian Japanese woman, is in the United States to learn about the skin diseases which killed so many of her fellow countrymen as a result of the atomic bomb explosions in Japan.

She graduated from the Emperor's Medical School in Tokyo in 1945 and now she is in Birmingham attending the Alabama Medical School as one of the 40 students chosen to come to the U. S. on a Methodist Mission Board scholarship. She is the only one of the 40 who is studying skin diseases.

Dr. Okawa chose the study of hematology because many Japanese are suffering from anemia, a shortage of white blood cells which causes them to have little resistance against other diseases. She wants to take her knowledge back to Japan to help those victims.

Japanese Doctor May Have Cure For Leprosy

TOKYO. — During a convention of leprosy research specialists held recently, it was reported that a Japanese doctor had devised a method for the artificial cultivation of the bacilli of the dread disease thus bringing world's medicine nearer a leprosy cure.

Japanese medical schools and private research have attempted to duplicate the methods used by Dr. Teizo Nakamura who claimed last year to have succeeded after a quarter of a century of experiments in artificially raising a good crop of leprosy germs for laboratory study.

It has been reported that independent research has confirmed Nakamura's claim and Japanese newspapers are already boosting Nakamura to become the first Japanese to receive the Nobel prize.

The convention is being held at Nakamura's leprosarium in Northern Honshu.

Group Singing

There is an opportunity for those who seek training in group singing under the direction of Bill White. It is reported that he is seeking a group of 25 singers and still requires about ten more to secure this number.

The Woodsworth Music Guild meets Sunday afternoons at 2:30 p.m. in the South Hall. Fee for fall term is $3.00.

ACCENTS ON SPORTS

A note from our Vancouver correspondent tells us that in a rugby game between Vancouver Technical and Kitsilano, Oscar Yamanaka, on the three-quarter line for the Tech boys, carried the ball over for two tries to lead them to a 26-0 washing.

* * *

It seems that the coast still shows a lot of preference for the English games, English rugby, soccer and even cricket while the east or at least Ontario and Quebec, rugby and cricket are indulged by only a small fraction. We are led to believe that some of the sports fans here have never seen rugger.

* * *

Our personal taste leans towards the more colorful, razzle dazzle plays that the Americanized version of rugby which they call football has to offer. It has more spectator thrill-appeal which the English game lacks.

But you can't take anything away from English rugby, it's no sissy's pastime. The players aren't padded down nor do they wear helmets. And they don't have substitutions, not even when a player is injured. Any injured player who is not able to continue is taken out of the game and that team plays a man short.

* * *

Remember the All-Star Japanese Rugby team that Japan sent to Canada back in 1929? That's 20 years back but we can remember their red and white zebra-striped jerseys. Though we were too young and unfamiliar with these things, we hear that the Japanese players in their games at Vancouver and Victoria often threw in a little judo to make their tackles that much more effective.

* * *

We like to kid anyone who will listen to us and who comes from a city with a poor ball club. Recently we noted to Mike Masaoka that the Washington Senators weren't exactly pennant contenders in the A. L. and while in Chicago we couldn't help but mention the Cubs in last place and the White Sox in sixth position.

Then we had to ride the San Francisco girls about their Seals in the PCL which finished seventh.

* * *

One of the San Franciscans knew Lefty O'doul personally and has even seen his large collection of souvenirs which he has gathered from his several trips to Japan as well as presents from his many Japanese friends.

* * *

Our correspondent from Japan writes that the Seals are getting a royal greeting there. He says the fans are coming into Tokyo from all parts of Japan to see the American ballplayers in action.

70,000 fans saw the Seals play against the Japan Eastern All-Stars. On the mound for the Japanese team was Victor Starffin who came to Vancouver with the Tokyo Giants. He together with another pitcher struck out 8 Seals but lost the game 4-0. It was scoreless until the seventh.

He also writes that several hundred fans lined up from the day previous to make sure they got in.

Sessue Hayakawa Plans New Movie Company

HONOLULU. — Sessue Hayakawa is making a notable comeback in a film world he starred in a generation ago. At 53, the Japanese actor has appeared in two Hollywood films this year and now he is in Japan to star in his first movie there in 13 years.

Hayakawa is planning on starting a movie company, a "Nichi-Bei" enterprise. He wants both American and Japanese capital in the company with Japanese and American backgrounds for the movies. His first film for his company will be entitled "In a Tea House." In Japan, where he will stay until January, he will appear in a Japanese movie called "Hiroshima", a story of a tycoon whose fortune is wiped out in the A-Bomb blast.

During his 13 years of absence from Japan, Hayakawa acted in 11 French films and four stage plays. In Hollywood, he played in "Tokyo Joe" and then was cast as a Japanese colonel in "Three Came Back" based on the novel of life in a Borneo internment camp.

First Nisei Club In St. Catharines Formed, Officers Chosen For Teen-Age Organization

ST. CATHARINES, Ont. — After much discussion over the lack of eligible members, finances and sponsors, the St. Catherines Nisei Teens have taken the first steps towards the formation of a teen-age club with the assistance of Rev. Shimizu of Toronto.

At a meeting presided over by Rev. Shimizu at the Memorial United Church which was attended by both Niseis and Isseis, the teen-agers were given an opportunity to express their views on the formation of a Nisei organization. Following the showing of three short films on Japan, Rev. Shimizu called upon the teen-agers to help form a club.

The results of the election were as follows: Jack Kobayashi, president; Sadie Hinatsu, vice-president; Jean Kobayashi, secretary; Tak Sano, treasurer; David Kobayashi and Joyce Nogami, social and recreational commitee.

Other committees are to be formed later and the name of the club is still to be decided. It was decided that the club meet on the second and the fourth week each month on Fridays commencing from 8 p.m. The club has been allowed the use of the gym and a room in which various activities will be carried on.

This is the first Nisei club to be formed in St. Catharines and they hope to make it the best Nisei teen-age organization. The first meeting of the club will be held at the Memorial Church, on Friday, Oct. 28, at 8 p.m.

US Group To Build More Japan Youth Centres

SAN FRANCISCO. — Paul Rusch, Episcopalian church worker and former army worker, outlined a plan recently to combat the growth of communism among the youth of Japan by providing more youth centres.

He revealed that he is planning a tour of 36 States to raise funds to finance this youth project which is already in operation in Japan.

The first unit is located in an isolated section of Yamanishi prefecture and is already doing good work, he said. Other sections of Japan notably Hokkaido and Hiroshima have also requested for the start of this work in their areas. The program is being carried out by the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, and Episcopalian organization.

Newfoundland, the easternmost part of Canada, is 1,800 miles from Ireland.
